Adobe Acrobat Reader Pro Cracked 2019 0 Belkasoft Evidence Center 2020 v9.9.4662 With Crack Serial KeyQ: How to sort and get top 3 results for a MySQL query I have some records in a table of my database which have the following columns: id, catId, userId, date, likeCount They are sorted by date (desc) DESC. I want to order them by the likeCount, for each userId, and then the top 3. I'm a bit stuck, I've tried: `SELECT * FROM (`table` ORDER BY `likeCount` DESC)`

`AS latest_category_likes_for_user_id GROUP BY userId` to get the top three, but this seems to return the top three for all users... I've also tried the following using a subquery to get the top three for each user: `SELECT * FROM (SELECT * FROM table WHERE userId = $userId ORDER BY `likeCount` DESC LIMIT 3) WHERE catId = $catId GROUP BY userId` which returns the top three for all the catIds, not the catId of $catId.

Please help, thanks. A: `SELECT * FROM table WHERE userId = $userId ORDER BY likeCount DESC LIMIT 3` Should do it. Or if you have more users, with some sort of grouping with `MAX()`, the top 3 groupings for each user should give you the results you want.
