Has anyone played Havenfire yet? Does it live up to the hype? Havenfire Description: Havenfire is a fantasy action RPG where you play as a tattered leader of a band of ragged heroes who must fight for the freedom of the world. Be the chosen one to wield the legendary sword that took an army to forge, and face the invasion of creatures that threaten to consume all within the Lands Between. THE FIRST ANIMATION-INSPIRED RPG. System Requirements: MINIMUM: OS: Windows 7 or greater. Processor: 2.0 GHz or greater. Memory: 2 GB RAM or greater. Video card: DirectX 11 video card. Sound Card: DirectX 11 compatible sound card. Hard disk: 5 GB available space or greater. 15 GB preferred. RELEASE DATE: ORIGINAL RELEASE DATE: Early April 2012. Get an idea of what Havenfire looks like in the first trailer: Strategy guide available here: Set upon by an invading force of terrifying demons, the people of a world live as refugees in the hostile lands between. For reasons unknown, the demons are preparing to summon the nine Elder Gods, terrifying invaders that took an army to destroy. The Elder Gods, however, have no intention of fighting a war and have instead abandoned their continents to the invaders. The Elder Gods reside in the Territories between where they recruit a bodyguard of heroes to strike at the heart of the invasion and lift the siege. The Lands Between are where the refugees from all over the world reside, and where the band of heroes will find their fame... Havenfire's unique gameplay has been created to incorporate aspects of the play styles of both traditional and current day RPG games, while making use of the benefits of a fantasy world for a game that is both familiar and new to the genre. We have used role-playing game conventions to influence the direction bff6bb2d33

Storyline • The land of the Elden Ring. A land of destiny • A chaotic world that is said to be the center of the heavens. A land so vast and deep that not even an angel can see its edges. • For centuries, a powerful mage named Ulala protected the Lands Between. She was performing the divine deeds necessary for its protection, and carried on a lonely battle. • One day, a great calamity came. The huge Wailing City, the one that had shaped the Lands Between, was being torn apart. Who could even hope to save Ulala when things had gone so badly wrong? But the young girl's courage was stronger than all. She continued to fight for the sake of the Lands Between, and soon was defeated by the terrifying Wailing City. • Legend said that when Ulala died, her spirit would bring devastation upon the Lands Between. For a great time, the world was bathed in blood. • Then, a few light years away from the fate of the Elden Ring, there appeared a light.
